1. EDITORIAL

Dear friends,

With the onset of winters and on the verge to wave goodbye to 2015, AIS has a lot in store. It's been a great pleasure to congratulate the complete AIS family on its 11th Foundation Day being celebrated on 1st of December. We are highly obliged with the faith shown by our Parents, in the journey of its growth; we the team AIS are here to ensure that our students will be.....

Getting taller everyday, Blossoming along the way.
More of beauty, and less hype; Developing your unique type.

Note the flowers for example: Seeds planted in the soil
Neither grow, nor develop Without a bit of toil.

Whether a child maturing, Or a parent full of pride,
An enterprise—just begun, Or a business venturing wide,

For every little effort Mid verdant strides each day,
There'll be growing pains, All along the way.

Students gear-up for FA-III pen paper assessment from 2nd December onwards and 18th December the annual concert – Melange.

Wait we still have a set of winter holidays from 25th December to 3rd January, 2016.

Even though the world is on fire, people still have a hope that with the dropping of mercury, this world will be at peace. With prayer on our lips and deep rooted desire in our heart let us all take a step in the month of December, which is the complete combination of education, celebration and winter vacation.
