SEL - SOCIAL EMOTIONAL LEARNING

Teaching social emotional skills helps preschoolers manage feelings, make friends, and handle frustration so they're ready to learn.

TOPIC - I CAN DO IT

Joy & Nursery: Drying and Folding Small Clothes

Children practiced hanging socks and hankies, then folding them.
This activity helps build fine motor skills, responsibility, and a sense of helping at home.

LKG: Packing Their Bags

Students packed books, water bottles, and tiffin on their own.
This activity teaches independence, organization, and accountability for belongings.

UKG: Arranging Things Properly

Children arranged classroom materials, toys, and shoes in order.
This activity develops orderliness, respect for shared spaces, and self-management.

SEL helps preschoolers grow confident, self-reliant, and ready for daily routines.
